

UMB GLOBAL NEWSLETTER

Sharing UMB Updates From Around the World

CGE Events

Global Perspectives

Human Rights at Home

Global Perspectives Series: Human Rights at Home

The Center for Global Engagement is hosting a Global Perspective Series on "Human Rights at Home," a three-part fall series. Experts will discuss why the United States has taken a divergent route on human rights and how embracing the international human rights system could make a critical impact in addressing systemic racism and differential access to education and health care.

Racial Injustice in the U.S. from a Human Rights Perspective

September 17 from noon - 1 p.m.

Join CGE for a discussion about systemic racism in the United States with a specific focus on whether applying a human rights lens would be a step forward toward addressing racism in this country.

Moderated by Roger J. Ward, JD, MSL, MPA, Interim Provost, University of Maryland, Baltimore

Panelists:

- Russell McClain, JD, Law School Professor and Associate Dean for Diversity and Inclusion, UM Carey Law School
- Peter Danchin, JD, Director International and Comparative Law Program and Professor of Law, UM Carey Law School
- Neijma Celestine-Donner, MSW, Assistant Dean of Diversity and Inclusion, UM School of Social Work
- Jackie Smith, PhD, Professor of Sociology at the University of Pittsburgh and co-coordinator of the Pittsburgh Human Rights City Alliance

Register Today

Experiences of Black UMB Students, Scholars, and Alumni from a Global and Local Perspective

October 13 from noon - 1 p.m.

Health as a Human Right in the United States: What COVID-19 Has Exposed

November 17 from 10 - 11 a.m.

Join us and take part in these important discussions on Human Rights at Home.

Register Today

CUGH Annual Conference

CUGH Virtual Conference: Addressing Critical Gaps in Global Health and Development

March 12-14

The Consortium of Universities for Global Health's annual conference has gone virtual for 2021, but is a must-attend event for anyone working in global health. Satellite Sessions run March 1-11.

Proposals for breakout sessions are due September 30 and proposals for posters and breakout panels are due October 23.

Faculty members and students applying for presentation or poster sessions at CUGH can have their proposals reviewed by CGE staff. Contact Virginia Rowthorn at virginia.rowthorn@umaryland.edu for details.

Learn More

UMB Global News

International Pharmaceutical Science Graduate Offers Advice to Graduate Students

Dr. Bowen Jiang was featured recently on the UMB American Association of Pharmaceutical Scientists student chapter website. In the interview, he offers advice to graduate students and talks about his experience as a formulation scientist at Regeneron Pharmaceuticals.

Read the Profile

Nursing Faculty Member Publishes on Leveraging Global Fund Investments for Health Systems Strengthening

Nancy Bolan, Ph.D., MPH, FNP, CNM, Assistant Professor and Director, Office of Global Health at the School of Nursing published a paper in the WHO Eastern Mediterranean Regional Office's August issue of the Eastern Mediterranean Health Journal. The article is titled, "Leveraging Global Fund Investments for Health Systems Strengthening: A Qualitative Case Study on Morocco's Concept Note Development."

Read the Article

External Global Events and Opportunities

Communicating with the Public Media, and Stakeholders

September 15 from 1-2:30 p.m.

The Consortium of Universities for Global Health is holding training designed to strengthen the global health community's understanding of how to effectively communicate complex ideas to the general public. This training will examine the core elements of what outside audiences need to understand and how to craft appealing messages, as well as specific venues for communicating your messages.

Learn More

Engaging with Congress

September 22 from 1-2:30 p.m.

The Consortium of Universities for Global Health will help you more effectively engage with elected officials. Lead by Stephanie Vance, a 25-year Capitol Hill veteran, you'll be updated on current policy issues and learn best practices/techniques for delivering your messages.

Learn More

Women Leaders in Global Health Conference

October 13-15

This year's WomenLift Health's fourth annual Women Leaders in Global Health Conference will bring together leaders in global health virtually to advance gender equality in health leadership.

Learn More

Funding Opportunity: Dr. Tom Hall Education Grant

Due October 15

The Consortium of Universities for Global Health is accepting applications for the Dr. Tom Hall Educational Grants program. Ten grants, each valued up to $5,000, will be awarded to CUGH members. Proposed projects should include educational activities that focus on improving the health of the planet, sustainability and human health.

Learn More

Professional Development: NAFSA Academy for International Education

Due November 13

Take your career to the next level by applying for NAFSA's Academy for International Education, designed to increase your skills as an international educator with an individualized learning plan, training, and networking. Deadline to apply for the 18th class is Nov. 13.

Learn More

COVID-19 Resources

UMB's COVID-19 Resources

For the latest information and resources on COVID-19 at UMB, check out the university's FAQs and community guidance.

UMB COVID-19 Info

CUGH COVID-19 Weekly Newsletter

Stay up-to-date on COVID-19 with CUGH's weekly newsletter, including teaching resources, articles and webinars focused on the global pandemic.

Sign Up for Newsletter

umaryland.edu/global

About Us

The Center for Global Engagement is the university-wide hub for interprofessional global health and education. The Office of International Services within CGE provides immigration and other support services to UMB's international scholar and student community.

Submit Your Content for the UMB Global
Newsletter

Subscribe to the UMB Global Newsletter

Donate to the Center for Global Engagement
