YILIN WANG

Master of Science

"There's no routine cancer."

Favorite Memory: I am one of the first students to enroll in the MS in PSC program at the School of Pharmacy. We six girls were just like a family, tightly bonded. We brought food to each other, exchanged gifts on Christmas, shared funny stories, and supported each other. I once forgot to bring my key when I traveled back to Maryland, and I stayed at one of my classmate's apartment. Even though we haven't seen each other due to the pandemic, we love our small family class.

Note of Thanks: I want to thank my classmates Khady, Bahavya, Manali, Komal, and Chaitali. I also want to thank our professors, and of course, Kristina. She helped us a lot! And my boyfriend, who stayed with me for almost one year during the pandemic quarantine. I also appreciate my parents, as they sent me many face masks from China last year.

Post-Graduation Plans: I'm now working in a medical science institute in China and studying RNA-related research. I want to continue my academic path to a doctoral degree in the next few years, and hopefully, make some contributions to advance research on human diseases.
