Consortium of Universities
for Global Health

Deadline Extended to Submit Breakout Panel Sessions and Abstracts for Global Health Conference

Globally-focused students, faculty, and staff: UMB and University of Maryland College Park are co-sponsors of the next Consortium of Universities for Global Health (CUGH) conference that will be held in-person in Washington, D.C. on April 14-16.

The two universities are co-sponsoring under the MPower banner to focus on our individual and shared global health assets. CUGH2023 will bring global health researchers and practitioners together from around the world to share their work and insights about the future of global health in these challenging times.

UMB Faculty: Breakout Panel, Abstract Presentation, and Satellite Session application portals are open now and close October 15. If you're considering submitting a proposal and looking for other UMB contributors or want to brainstorm about ideas, please reach out to the Center for Global Engagement.

UMB Students: Please consider submitting an Abstract Presentation application (closes October 15). UMB students from all UMB schools have been very successful in the past with getting posters accepted. IMPORTANT: Center for Global Engagement staff can review your proposal before you submit it and the first five students who get their abstract accepted will receive FREE REGISTRATION to the conference.

Second Year of PSLI's Global Leadership Specialization Focuses on Pandemic Leadership

The President's Student Leadership Institute \(PSLI\) is a co-curricular certificate program designed to expose students to contemporary issues in leadership and professional development in order to prepare participants for professional leadership in a diverse workplace.

Applications for PSLI are open until October 8.

This year's Global Leadership specialization, with programming by the Center for Global Engagement, will focus on pandemic leadership. Viewing leadership through a global perspective, this specialization provides candidates with an opportunity to attend seminars with speakers from across the globe. Watch the CGE website for the upcoming events.

PSLI offers a diverse portfolio of workshops, platforms, and learning options to allow candidates the ability to select the format or types of events they can attend based on availability, learning style, and time commitments.

Global Leadership events are open to everyone. Register for each event at UMBengaged.

Apply Today for Global Health Aging in Japan Course with Summer Travel

A faculty-led travel experience, the three-credit Global Health Aging in Japan course explores and analyzes how broader cultural norms and social institutions of contemporary Japan shape individuals' experiences of growing older, life-stage transitions, and intergenerational relations through a life course perspective.

The course is informed by an interdisciplinary gerontological approach integrating visits to and engagement with academic, business, health and medical, policy and socio-cultural sites in Japan. Students will participate in five in-person class sessions in Spring 2023, followed by a two-week faculty-led travel experience in Japan during the summer.

"Transforming Global Learning Practice: Time for Action" AAC&U Conference on Global Learning

October 12-14 online

Global learning has undergone a necessary period of reflection amid recent social, economic, and public health crises. To address the uncomfortable realities that have been uncovered, educators around the world are reframing global learning.

The AAC&U's 2022 Conference on Global Learning will explore ways to put this new framing into practice at institutions of all types. Conference sessions will focus on:

- Ensuring all learners participate in global learning
- Connecting global learning to careers and/or community engagement
- Designing and assessing global learning courses, curricula, and programs
- Situating DEI efforts within global contexts
- Focusing on global engagement in local settings
- Decolonizing global learning practice
- Integrating global learning outcomes into curricular and cocurricular experiences
- Providing global learning pathways from general education to the majors and/or professional programs
- Preparing students to process global threats to democracy
- Embedding the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals
