Abstract:

This collection contains the medical lecture notes of George F. Arie, a student at the College of Physicians and Surgeons in Baltimore, MD from 1890 to 1892. The lecture notes date from October 1890 to March 1892 and include topics like the Principles of Medicine, Physiology, Surgery, Diseases of the Eye and Ear, Hygiene, Gynecology, Dermatology and the Practice of Medicine.

Biographical History:

George F. Arie attended the College of Physicians and Surgeons, a former Baltimore medical school which merged with the University of Maryland School of Medicine in 1915, from September 1890 to March 1892. He is not listed as a graduate of the school. Arie returned to North Carolina and passed his medical exams in 1893; he set up his practice in New London, NC. Arie relocated to Tucson, Arizona due to health concerns and died of consumption (Tuberculosis) in November 1898.
