

Poison Prevention Press

May/June 2023

Volume 16, Issue 3

In This Issue: Skin Lightening Products

The latest issue of the Maryland Poison Center's Poison Prevention Press newsletter is now online. In this issue, we learn about skin lightening products and their dangers.

View the issue

Print & post a copy of the issue

Please help us spread the word by forwarding this email to coworkers, friends, and family. Health care providers and health educators: print and hang a copy in your office, pharmacy, or clinic. You can also share it online by posting the link to the related blog article on social media.

What else is new?

More poison prevention information is always available on our website, blog, and social media pages.

On the Blog

- What You Should Know About Skin Lightening Products
- Mushrooms: Hungry for Trouble
- Meet Our Experts: Liz

On Social Media

- Herbicides
- Poisonous plants

Support the Maryland Poison Center

All gifts made to the MPC go directly to support the lifesaving services as well as to the educational and community outreach initiatives that the center provides. Please consider making a gift in support of the MPC today.

Donate Here

Click the button above, or use your phone's camera to scan the QR code to the right.

Poison Prevention Press is a newsletter from the Maryland Poison Center designed to educate the public about poisons and how to prevent poisonings and overdoses in the home, school, and workplace. It presents a wide variety of poison-related topics that cover all ages. A new issue is sent out bi-monthly.

Received this email from a friend?
Have it delivered to your own inbox by subscribing here.

Questions, comments, or blog topic suggestions can be directed to:

Emily Paterson, MPH, CHES®

Public Education and Communications Manager

Follow the MPC on social media for the most up-to-date information

Find more poison prevention information at mdpoison.com