Students: Apply to Join Global Health Retreat Focused on Decolonizing Global Health Perspectives

May 24-26 at Bon Secours Retreat and Conference Center in

Marriottsville

Are you ready to reshape your understanding of Global Health?

Students, apply to join us for an immersive, interprofessional retreat May 24-26, where UMB students will engage with global health leaders to promote equitable, community-based interventions and cultivate a decolonized perspective.

Through thought-provoking discussions, interactive workshops, and collaborative projects, you will explore the structures and systemic factors impacting equity in global health, challenging dominant frameworks. This transformative journey aims to empower you to become an agent of change, forging lasting connections with UMB Global Health leaders and fellow students.

All meals and accommodation are provided at no cost to students, and all UMB students are welcome to apply.

Be part of a paradigm shift towards a more inclusive and just global health future! Apply by April 12 and embark on a transformative journey that will redefine your understanding of global health.
