

Thank You

TO ALL OF OUR AWARD RECIPIENTS

We consider ourselves very fortunate that you have provided such dedicated and effective service to the University. Your commitment to the University is admirable and your dedication to providing excellence in everything you do is a quality well worth emulating. Each of you has contributed, directly or indirectly, to the University's efforts to excel as a pre-eminent institution in our missions to educate professionals, conduct research that addresses real-world issues affecting the human condition, provide excellent clinical care and practice, and serve the public with dedication to improve health, justice, and the public good.

Because of your efforts and those of your co-workers and colleagues, the University is a dominant economic leader of the region through innovation, entrepreneurship, philanthropy, and interdisciplinary and interprofessional teamwork. Your work has been key in extending our reach with hallmark local and global initiatives that positively transform lives. Through your efforts and commitment, the University is becoming a beacon to the world as an environment for learning and discovery that is rich in diversity and inclusion.

2013/2014 CECIL S. KELLY MEMORIAL EMPLOYEE OF THE YEAR AWARD

This award is presented on an annual basis to an employee who exemplifies the qualities of service, humanity, and commitment that Cecil S. Kelly exhibited during his career at the University of Maryland, Baltimore.

Cecil S. Kelly served the University from Oct. 28, 1966, through Sept. 4, 1989, when he died of cancer. As an assistant director for operations and maintenance, Mr. Kelly was a dedicated and loyal member of the staff of Facilities Management. He was tireless in his efforts, committed in his service to the University and the community, and a friend and confidant to those who knew him.
