

WOODWARD AWARD CRITERIA

The Theodore E. Woodward Award, established in 1995, recognizes the significant and enduring contributions to the Health Sciences and Human Services Library by Theodore E. Woodward, Professor Emeritus of the University of Maryland School of Medicine.

The purpose of the award is to acknowledge a significant contribution of resources or exemplary service in support of the Health Sciences and Human Services Library's mission.

1. This award is given as merited at the discretion of the Library Director.
2. The award consists of a certificate mounted on a wooden plaque. The certificate is worded as follows:

Health Sciences and Human Services Library University of Maryland

The Theodore E. Woodward Award

Presented to

in recognition of outstanding contribution to the advancement of the Library's mission on this ___ day of [month], [year]

Director