

Maxim Healthcare and the University of Maryland School of Nursing Present:

Home and Community Based Care

Symposium for Healthcare Sciences and Service Professionals & Students

April 25, 2016 (8:30am-3:30pm)

SMC Campus Center

621 W. Lombard St.

Baltimore, MD 21201

Topics Include:

Drivers in Healthcare including the ACA, Reimbursement and Policy

The expanding role of home and community based care

The current and future use of informational technologies in the post-acute setting

Case studies surrounding patients transitioning from acute to home & community based settings

Target Audience: The UM-SON and Maxim Healthcare Symposium is directed at students and current healthcare professionals that are interested in or involved in post-acute and home & community based care.

Opening Speaker Sponsor ($500)

- Present Opening Speaker
- Premium Exhibit Space
- Thank you, recognition & logo online and printed program
- Two “thank you” messages to all attendees from UM-SON and Maxim during Annual Meeting
  - Attendee List sent post-conference (opt-out option)

Breakfast Sponsor ($300)

- Premium Exhibit Space
- Thank you, recognition & logo online and printed program
- Two “thank you” messages to all attendees from UM-SON and Maxim during Annual Meeting
  - Attendee List sent post-conference (opt-out option)

Lunch Sponsor ($200)

- Premium Exhibit Space
- Thank you, recognition & logo online and printed program
- Two “thank you” messages to all attendees from UM-SON and Maxim during Annual Meeting
  - Attendee List sent post-conference (opt-out option)

Attendees:

- Healthcare and Science Students - $20
- Healthcare and Science Professionals - $65