

Mission Statements

The Alliance of WORK/LIFE professionals is a membership organization with the mission of promoting work/family and personal life balance. Through sharing cutting-edge thinking, impactful initiatives, and helpful key resources, AWLP strives to improve the professionalism of those working in the work/life arena, and to influence better integration of work and family life.

Employee Assistance Professionals Association

The Employee Assistance Professionals Association (EAPA) is the largest, oldest, and most respected association for persons in the employee assistance field. EAPA represents more than 6,000 individuals and organizations with an interest in employee assistance in 103 chapters around the globe. EAPA's mission is to promote the highest standards of practice and continuing development of employee assistance professionals, programs and services. EAPA's vision is to be the global voice of the employee assistance field.

EASNA is an international association comprised of individuals and organizations dedicated to the professionalism and growth of the Employee Assistance Field. EASNA's mission is to be a leader in the future of Employee Assistance by developing and promoting best practices, through accreditation, a code of ethics, research and education. The membership includes professionals in Employee Assistance, Human Resources, Managed Behavioral Health, Work/Life, Wellness and organizational development.