Subject: ACEN Accreditation Verification

Good afternoon Ms. Vikell,

Thank you for contacting the Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN). This is in reference to verification of a master's nursing program.

Our records show that the master's program at the University of Maryland in Baltimore, Maryland, was initially accredited in April 1957 and was accredited by our agency until June 2010.

I hope this information has been helpful. Please let me know if you have any questions or require further assistance.

Best regards,

Jessica Dermody
