

Outstanding UMB Faculty Award

Larry S. Gibson, LLB

Larry S. Gibson, LLB, professor at the Francis King Carey School of Law since 1974, has dedicated his career to promoting equality, justice, and opportunity for all. A Baltimore native, he has written or created numerous presentations on the history of civil rights and African-American lawyers in Maryland, including a 2012 book about Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall, whose name is now part of BWI Airport because of the professor's efforts. Gibson also has directed political campaigns near and far and has organized the Black Law Alumni Reunion & Symposium for Carey Law graduates every five years since 2003.
