2021 U.S. News: Master's Programs in Nursing - Employer Survey

Overall Peer Assessment

As part of its spring 2021 report on graduate and professional schools, U.S. News & World Report is conducting a survey of master's nursing programs. As someone involved in the hiring of, or working with, recent graduates your opinion on the quality of different graduate nursing programs is very important to the applicants of these programs. You are asked to rate a school's master's nursing degree program. The list of nursing programs in this survey consists of all U.S. master's nursing degree programs accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education, as well as master's nursing programs accredited by the Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing. They are listed below by state. Your name was given to U.S. News & World Report in the fall of 2020 by one of the schools as someone to be surveyed since you were involved with hiring of or working with their recent graduates, or were familiar with the school's program. Your participation in this survey is greatly appreciated. Please review the entire list of nursing schools before rating individual master's programs. Identify the nursing schools you are familiar with, and then rate the overall academic quality of the master's programs at each of these schools. Consider all factors that contribute to or give evidence of the excellence of the school's master's program, for example, curriculum, record of scholarship, quality of faculty and graduates. Rate schools on a scale of outstanding (5) to marginal (1). If you are not familiar with a school's faculty, programs and graduates, please mark "No answer."
