Milestones in the Development of the University of Maryland at Baltimore

The first of three programs celebrating the 175th anniversary of the Health Sciences Library

Thursday, June 9, 1988
Davidge Hall
3:00–5:00 p.m.

The Health Sciences Library cordially invites you to the first in a series of three programs focusing on the past, present and future of the University of Maryland at Baltimore. This first program, "The Road to Excellence: Milestones in the Development of the University of Maryland at Baltimore," features speakers from each of the schools serving the health professions. They will identify the major milestones in the development of their schools, and the impact of these developments on the campus, the profession, and the greater "community of caregivers."

The Health Sciences Library acknowledges the generosity of the University of Maryland at Baltimore Professional Schools and the Chancellor's Office in sponsoring this event.
